SHOSHONE-BANNOCK CASINO HOTEL ANNOUNCES GIN BLOSSOMS

FORT HALL, IDAHO – Have your friends and family follow you down to the Chiefs Event Center February 17, 2024, to experience Gin Blossoms in a live performance.

Gin Blossoms, an American alternative rock band formed in 1987 in Tempe, Arizona. The band rose to prominence following the 1992 release of their first major label debut album, New Miserable Experience, and the first single released from that album, "Hey Jealousy" became a Top 25 hit and went gold. New Miserable Experience eventually went quadruple platinum and three other charting singles were released from the album including "Allison Road" and "Until I Fall Away". The band's follow-up album, Congratulations I'm Sorry (1996), went platinum including the Grammy nominated "As Long as It Matters" and the top 10 single "Follow You Down". Gin Blossoms continue to tour every year and in recent years have shared the stage with Collective Soul, Barenaked Ladies and Hootie & The Blowfish.

Ticket Pre-sale will be 10am December 13, through 10am December 15. Pre-sale codes will be available exclusively to Players Club members of the Shoshone-Bannock Casino Hotel through email. Players Club members can also receive the code from a Players Club Representative at the property. The public will be able to buy tickets beginning Friday, December 15, 2023, at 10am.
